Susan Sabo joined FranklinCovey in 2012, continuing a solid business career. When working with clients, she quickly becomes their partner in leveraging their investment in FranklinCovey capabilities and content. That partnership helps yield results for participants and your organization. Susan brings a thorough knowledge of FranklinCovey's content and the All Access Pass® as well as a keen focus on sessions tailored for impact .

Participants note that she embraces the subject matter, is light-hearted, and engages them throughout sessions. Susan has a successful record working in a variety of industries including technology, consulting, healthcare, pharmaceutical, financial services, AED, and manufacturing.

She has a BA in business administration. She's been a major account manager for a telecom company, an independent productivity consultant, a marketer for a leading software developer, and a sales rep for a computer hardware company.
